

College Representative Permission Slip

Throughout the year college admission counselors will be visiting the school to talk about their institution, give admission information and answer any questions you may have about their school! These representatives come during the school day so you must get permission from your teachers to miss class and to attend. College visits usually last between 30-60 minutes. You must get teacher signatures for the cores that you will be missing to attend and return to Miss Hammond at least 3 days before the day of the visit. These admissions counselors come from all over the state and beyond so it is important to know how many students are attending! There may be only so many spots for students which will be a first come, first serve basis.
